This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. With note inserted by Henry Bradshaw, showing that the book was printed in France, and written by a Frenchman.

'This imprint, "Dublini" is clearly false. The whole appearance of the title-page shows it to have been printed in France, before looking into the book. Once there, it is clear that the writer is a Frenchman. For one thing look at p. 32, where he speaks of the wretched state of his own country as compared with England even under Charles I. Besides this not as proofs, look at the lettering "Pro Rege Angliae," the bookplate, that of a French owner, and the price 1 franc 50 centimes marked in it.

'The leaf which contains the bookplate & is pasted down to the cover is the 8th leaf of sheet H, and if the book is rebound should be carefully kept joined to its other leaf. '14th January, 1862.' 'H. B.'

The book is by Claude Barthélemy Morisot, and is in answer to Milton's Eikonoklastes. Query printed in Dijon? See Didot, Biog. Nouv. Univ.

APPENDIX I

BOOKS AND DOCUMENTS

RELATING TO

THE PAPACY.

DEPOSITED IN THE UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

BY THE

REV^D. ROBERT JAMES M'GHEE, A.M.

A.D. 1840

The Rev. Robert James M'Ghee[1] was minister of Harold's Cross, Dublin, from 1839 to 1846 (nos. 8328 and 8350), and rector of Holywell cum Needingworth in 1850. For an account of these books, see 'The Church of Rome: her present moral theology, scriptural instruction, and canon law. A Report on "The Books and Documents on the Papacy," deposited in the University Library, Cambridge, the Bodleian Library, Oxford, and the Library of Trinity College, Dublin, A.D. 1840.' (London, 1852, 22 cm.) It was edited by the Rev. Edward Baines, Rector of Bluntisham, Hunts, and late Fellow of Christ's College, Cambridge.

See W. D. Macray, Annals of the Bodleian, ed. 2, p. 340.

[1] In 1831 he is described, perhaps in error, as 'A.M.' (no. 8670), but in 1837–1840 as 'A.B.' (nos. 8315, 8317, and 8327). He describes himself officially as M.A. in 1840 (no. 8354) and 1845 (no. 8345). He does not appear as a graduate of Oxford, Cambridge, London, or Dublin.

NOTES AND CORRIGENDA

HUMPHRY POWELL (1550).

Attention may be drawn to an interesting problem suggested by Mr. H. R. Plomer in The Library for January, 1910, pp. 54–72, as to the possibility of a connection between Hugh Singleton, the printer of several books with cryptic imprints, and Humphry Powell, during the reign of Queen Mary. He suggests that Singleton 'may have gone over to Ireland, taking with him a stock of foreign letters and initials, which he could easily have procured abroad' (p. 69). The two men are known to have been associated. If Mr. Plomer's theory is correct, then Ireland may claim among its typographical treasures some of the most interesting and most baffling books which were ever issued in the English language. For a biographical notice of Powell see E. G. Duff, A Century of the English Book Trade (London Bibliographical Society), 1905, p. 124; and for facsimiles see E. R. McC. Dix in R.I.A. Proceedings, vol. XXVIII. C., p. 213.
